

Verb Tenses - Past and Present tenses

If the sentence is in the past tense, rewrite it in the present tense. If the sentence is in the present tense, rewrite it in the past tense.

1. Emily paints a picture.

2. They jumped over the fence.

3. The students read their books quietly.

4. He swims in the pool every afternoon.

5. Sarah dances beautifully on stage.

6. We cooked dinner together.

7. The cat sleeps in the sunbeam.

8. Lisa writes a story for her class project.

9. They play soccer after school.

10. Mom bakes cookies on Sundays.

11. John helped his sister with homework.

12. The birds sing in the trees every morning.

13. Peter rode his bike to school.

14. Jane watches movies with her friends.

15. The teacher explains the lesson to the students.

Answers:

1. Emily paints a picture.
Emily painted a picture.
2. They jumped over the fence.
They jump over the fence.
3. The students read their books quietly.
The students read their books quietly.
4. He swims in the pool every afternoon.
He swam in the pool every afternoon.
5. Sarah dances beautifully on stage.
Sarah danced beautifully on stage.
6. We cooked dinner together.
We cook dinner together.
7. The cat sleeps in the sunbeam.
The cat slept in the sunbeam.
8. Lisa writes a story for her class project.
Lisa wrote a story for her class project.
9. They play soccer after school.
They played soccer after school.
10. Mom bakes cookies on Sundays.
Mom baked cookies on Sundays.
11. John helped his sister with homework.
John helps his sister with homework.
12. The birds sing in the trees every morning.
The birds sang in the trees every morning.
13. Peter rode his bike to school.
Peter rides his bike to school.
14. Jane watches movies with her friends.
Jane watched movies with her friends.
15. The teacher explains the lesson to the students.
The teacher explained the lesson to the students.