Q5:

Have you ever read a good book that you couldn't stop reading? There are many things that make me busy. But I love reading just for pleasure for many reasons. Books are interesting, fun to read, and are a good time waster.

Books are very interesting and really good. A lot of books have good plots and very cool characters. Many people love them and are interested in them. Additionally lots of people have books so it's almost always available. And there are many genres of books so you will never get bored.

Books are very available and have a wide variety. Books are found everywhere, in your house, in the library, and in your school. Also the variety of books are massive and there are a lot of different genres. Examples of genres are sci-fi, adventure, mythology, science fiction, historical fiction, and romance.

Books are considered a time waster and some people say they are not a good use of your time. But you can learn a lot from books and learn a lot of history or other subjects with non-fiction books. Additionally they can be a good time waster when you are waiting in a line or waiting for an appointment or something else.

I love reading books for pleasure because they are interesting to read, very available, have many genres, and are a great time waster.

may not be a good counter argument to use first person.
