

Reading Passage: The Seasons' Dance (Poetry 3)

Spring is here with flowers bright, Buds are blooming, oh what a sight! Birds are singing in the trees, Butterflies dance on the breeze.

Summer days are warm and long, Children play and sing songs. The sun is shining, the skies are blue, Ice cream is fun for me and you.

Autumn leaves in red and gold, Cooler days as nights unfold. Pumpkins, apples, harvest time, Cozy sweaters, so divine.

Winter brings the snow so white, Snowflakes falling, what a sight! Building snowmen, sledding fast, Hot cocoa by the fire at last.

Seasons change, but joy remains, With each new turn, something gains. Nature's dance, a lovely show, Through the year, watch it grow.
