Incorrect Question #	Why is my answer incorrect			Why is this the correct answer
23	I had to factor the numerator			A is the answer because I had to factor
25	I missed a letter			D is the answer because you had to use the n too
28	I did not cross out the 2 values			H is the right answer because you can't add the powers
35	I missed the answer			C is the answer because they all have different domains
45	It is wrong because all the other answers are not close to the line of best fit			D is the answer because it is the closest to the line of best fit
