| 33                   | I ordered the numbers from in a different way.   |                 |              | Answer: Set 3, Set 1, Set 2   |           |                 |
| 34                   | I didn't see the proper quantile range which means I didn't subtract the interquantile range properly. |                 |              | When you look at the range of the quantiles you can see that D is the answer. |           |                 |
