

Grade7

Reading Autobiography

A Journey Through Pages

Hello, fellow readers and enthusiasts of the written word! My name is Alex, and I am here to share my journey of falling in love with reading, a voyage that has shaped my life in unimaginable ways. It all began when I was in third grade, and my teacher introduced me to the magical world of books.

At first, reading was a challenge. The words seemed to dance on the pages, and I would often find myself lost amidst the sea of letters. But I was determined. I remember spending countless hours at the local library, picking out books that caught my eye and immersing myself in their stories. My parents were supportive, always encouraging me to explore new genres and authors.

As the years went by, my love for reading only grew stronger. In fifth grade, I discovered the Harry Potter series, and it was like a door had opened to a new dimension. The way J.K. Rowling crafted her world, filled with magic, friendship, and adventure, left me in awe. I realized that books had the power to transport me to different worlds, introduce me to new perspectives, and ignite my imagination.

In seventh grade, I took a leap of faith and ventured into the world of classics. I read "To Kill a Mockingbird" by Harper Lee, and it changed my perception of society and justice. The themes of racial inequality and moral growth resonated with me, and I began to understand the impact that literature could have on shaping one's beliefs and values.

Now, in eighth grade, I find myself exploring various genres, from science fiction to historical fiction. I have learned that every book has a story to tell, and every author has a unique voice. Reading has become more than just a hobby; it is a passion that continues to enlighten and inspire me every day.

I have realized that reading is a lifelong journey, and there is always something new to discover. It has taught me empathy, critical thinking, and the beauty of diversity. I am grateful for every book that has been a part of my journey, and I am excited for the countless adventures that await me in the pages to come.

Questions:

1. When did Alex start falling in love with reading?

- A. In third grade
- B. In fifth grade
- C. In seventh grade
- D. In eighth grade

2.What was Alex's initial challenge with reading?

- A. Understanding the themes
- B. Connecting with the characters
- C. The words seemed to dance on the pages
- D. Finding interesting books

3.Which book series had a significant impact on Alex in fifth grade?

- A. To Kill a Mockingbird
- B. Harry Potter
- C. The Chronicles of Narnia
- D. The Lord of the Rings

4.Who wrote "To Kill a Mockingbird"?

- A. J.K. Rowling
- B. Harper Lee
- C. Jane Austen
- D. Mark Twain

5. What change did reading "To Kill a Mockingbird" bring in Alex?

- A. A love for adventure
- B. A change in perception of society and justice
- C. Interest in magic and fantasy
- D. Desire to read more classics

6. What genres is Alex exploring in eighth grade?

- A. Only classics
- B. Only fantasy
- C. Various genres
- D. Only science fiction

7. What has reading taught Alex?

- A. Only critical thinking
- B. Only empathy
- C. Empathy, critical thinking, and the beauty of diversity
- D. Only the beauty of diversity

8. What does Alex feel about the future of their reading journey?

- A. Uncertain
- B. Excited
- C. Indifferent
- D. Overwhelmed

9. What role did Alex's parents play in their reading journey?

- A. Discouraged them from reading
- B. Were indifferent
- C. Encouraged them to explore new genres and authors
- D. Prevented them from reading classics

10. What did Alex discover in fifth grade?

- A. The importance of classics
- B. A love for science fiction
- C. The Harry Potter series
- D. The impact of literature on beliefs

1. Answer: A. In third grade Explanation: Alex mentions that the journey began in third grade when introduced to the world of books by a teacher.
2. Answer: C. The words seemed to dance on the pages Explanation: Alex describes the initial challenge as the words seeming to dance on the pages, making it hard to follow.
3. Answer: B. Harry Potter Explanation: Alex specifically mentions discovering the Harry Potter series in fifth grade and being awed by it.
4. Answer: B. Harper Lee Explanation: Harper Lee is mentioned as the author of "To Kill a Mockingbird."
5. Answer: B. A change in perception of society and justice Explanation: Alex mentions that the themes of racial inequality and moral growth in the book resonated and changed their perception of society and justice.
6. Answer: C. Various genres Explanation: Alex states that in eighth grade, they are exploring various genres.
7. Answer: C. Empathy, critical thinking, and the beauty of diversity Explanation: Alex mentions learning empathy, critical thinking, and appreciating the beauty of diversity through reading.

8. Answer: B. Excited Explanation: Alex expresses excitement about the countless adventures awaiting in the pages to come.
9. Answer: C. Encouraged them to explore new genres and authors Explanation: Alex mentions that their parents were supportive and encouraged them to explore new genres and authors.
10. Answer: C. The Harry Potter series Explanation: In fifth grade, Alex discovered the Harry Potter series, which had a significant impact on them.