Thesis statement: How is soccer fun? Why don't you play something like basketball, baseball, or football? Well it's just my opinion that soccer is more fun than all the other sports.

I had always loved playing soccer! I would always play outside with my friends, But people might be saying that. How is soccer fun? Why don't you play something like basketball, baseball, or football? Well it's just my opinion that soccer is more fun than all the other sports.

Soccer has many reasons why it is fun, like how we have so many funny and cool players. We have one big event that happens every four years called the World Cup. The World cup is a fun event that thirty-two countries play.

There are even more tournaments than the world cup. They have MLS, champions league (this contains clubs like PS-G and real madrid), Gold cup, spanish cup (this only includes spanish countries like Brazil, Argentina, and Uruguay), and many others. The recent winners of the world cup were Argentina. France had lost in the finals. The all star player of Argentina is Messi and France all star player is mbappe. If you like soccer, now go outside and play some.

The reason I choose soccer over football, because football doesn't have a variety of tournaments. The only tournament they have is the super Bowl which has fewer people buying tickets than the world cup. Plus more countries play football like England, France and germany. Football is just only in the usa. USA

The point I choose soccer over basketball is because basketball does have any intensity like soccer. Soccer has so many things you can do like hit the ball with your head to score a goal, But the only thing you can do in basketball is that cool dunk which almost every NBA (this stands for national basketball Association) player can do. Plus a lot of people know soccer players but only Americans know LeBron James and Stephen Curry.

The last reason I choose soccer over baseball is that in baseball you just hit a ball with a bat, nothing else. While soccer you chest the ball when the balls are in midair. And they have this thing called the world series which is completely false. Nobody except America plays baseball. While most of the world plays soccer like Portugal, Spain, Germany and many more countries.
