

Conjunctions - Identifying conjunctions

Circle the conjunctions in each sentence.

1. Emma loves to read books, but her brother prefers playing outside.
2. The sky was cloudy, so we decided to bring umbrellas just in case.
3. Jack wanted to go to the beach, but Sarah preferred hiking in the mountains.
4. The cat was hungry, so it meowed loudly until it got its food.
5. Sarah studied hard all week, yet she didn't perform well on the test.
6. The weather was hot, so they decided to go swimming in the pool.
7. Tom wanted pizza for dinner, but his sister wanted sushi.
8. The team worked tirelessly, and they finally won the championship.
9. He was tired, yet he refused to go to bed early.
10. Emma could choose between chocolate or vanilla ice cream for dessert.
11. The train was late, so they missed their connecting flight.
12. It was raining outside, yet they still went for a walk with umbrellas.
13. Peter wanted to go hiking, but his friends preferred biking.
14. The cake was delicious, so they asked for the recipe.
15. They could stay home or go to the park for the afternoon.

Answers:

1. Emma loves to read books, but her brother prefers playing outside.
2. The sky was cloudy, so we decided to bring umbrellas just in case.
3. Jack wanted to go to the beach, but Sarah preferred hiking in the mountains.
4. The cat was hungry, so it meowed loudly until it got its food.
5. Sarah studied hard all week, yet she didn't perform well on the test.
6. The weather was hot, so they decided to go swimming in the pool.
7. Tom wanted pizza for dinner, but his sister wanted sushi.
8. The team worked tirelessly, and they finally won the championship.
9. He was tired, yet he refused to go to bed early.
10. Emma could choose between chocolate or vanilla ice cream for dessert.
11. The train was late, so they missed their connecting flight.
12. It was raining outside, yet they still went for a walk with umbrellas.
13. Peter wanted to go hiking, but his friends preferred biking.
14. The cake was delicious, so they asked for the recipe.
15. They could stay home or go to the park for the afternoon.

