

Grade 4
Reading - Poetry

“The Adventures of Sky and Sea”

In the heart of the grandest adventure, Sky met Sea, With whispers of wind and waves dancing free. Sky painted dreams in hues of the morning light, While Sea told stories from the depths, out of sight.

Together they laughed, they played, and they grew, Learning the language only best friends knew. Sky shared the secrets of clouds, fluffy and white, And Sea sang of treasures hidden from sight.

“Come, dance with my waves!” Sea would cheerfully call, As Sky draped a rainbow after a brief rainfall. With gulls soaring high and dolphins leaping with glee, They created a symphony of joy, wild and free.

But then came a storm, with thunder and might, Challenging the friends on their harmonious flight. Sky roared with lightning, Sea roared with waves, Together they faced it, strong and brave.

The storm finally passed, leaving calm and peace, A testament to their friendship, never to cease. With a sunset of gold, Sky kissed Sea goodnight, Promising more adventures with the morning light.

Multiple Choice Questions:

What are the main elements described in the poem?

- A) Mountains and Valleys
- B) Sky and Sea
- C) Sun and Moon
- D) Trees and Flowers

How do Sky and Sea interact with each other?

- A) They ignore each other
- B) They compete with each other
- C) They are best friends
- D) They are enemies

What does Sea invite Sky to do?

- A) To create a storm
- B) To dance with the waves
- C) To hide the treasures
- D) To paint a rainbow

What happens after a brief rainfall?

- A) Sky creates a storm
- B) Sea sings a song
- C) Sky drapes a rainbow
- D) Sea hides its treasures

What do Sky and Sea create together?

- A) A Symphony of Joy
- B) A Storm
- C) A Rainbow
- D) A Sunset

What do the gulls and dolphins do?

- A) They hide treasures
- B) They create a storm
- C) They soar and leap
- D) They sleep

What challenges Sky and Sea's friendship?

- A) A Storm
- B) A Rainbow
- C) A Symphony
- D) A Sunset

How do Sky and Sea feel after the storm passes?

- A) Angry
- B) Sad
- C) Calm and Peaceful
- D) Excited

What does Sky promise at the end of the poem?

- A) More Storms
- B) More Adventures
- C) More Treasures
- D) More Rainbows

What lesson can be learned from Sky and Sea's relationship?

- A) Friendship can overcome challenges
- B) Storms last forever
- C) Treasures are hidden in the sea
- D) Rainbows only appear at night

Answers:

1. B) Sky and Sea. The poem revolves around the adventures and friendship between Sky and Sea, making them the main elements described.
2. C) They are best friends. The poem describes the strong friendship and playful interactions between Sky and Sea.
3. B) To dance with the waves. The poem mentions that Sea cheerfully calls Sky to come and dance with its waves.
4. C) Sky drapes a rainbow. The poem says that Sky drapes a rainbow after a brief rainfall.
5. A) A Symphony of Joy. The poem describes how Sky and Sea create a symphony of joy together.
6. C) They soar and leap. The poem mentions that gulls soar high and dolphins leap with glee.
7. Answer: A) A Storm. The poem describes a storm that challenges the friendship of Sky and Sea, but they face it together bravely.
8. Answer: C) Calm and Peaceful. After the storm passes, Sky and Sea feel calm and peaceful, as mentioned in the poem.
9. Answer: B) More Adventures. Sky promises more adventures with the morning light at the end of the poem.
10. Answer: A) Friendship can overcome challenges. The poem illustrates how the strong friendship between Sky and Sea helps them overcome the challenge of a storm, showing that friendship can overcome challenges.