Here is the first part of Ellie’s rough draft. Use it to answer questions 13–16.

(1)If you like horror or suspense books or movies, you are probably a fan of Stephen King. (2)Stephen King has written more than fifty novels and numerous short stories. (3)Many of these have been made into movies.

(4)King was born in Maine, the second son of Donald and Nellie King. (5)He lived in Indiana and he also lived in Connecticut before returning back to Maine with his mother when he was eleven. (6)King always knew he wanted to be a writer. (7)Consequently, his path to success was not an easy one.

(8)While in high school, he and his brother David wrote and sold a local newspaper. (9)Their paper was named Dave’s Rag and sold for just five cents a copy. (10)Other than the newspaper, according to King, his high school career was “totally undistinguished.”

(11)King earned a bachelor of arts degree in English from the University of Maine. (12)Shortly after graduation, he married his wife, Tabitha. (13)He was a trained high school English teacher. (14)He was not able to find a job. (15)While his wife worked at a donut shop, he supported himself by pumping gas and working in a laundry. (16)Many people have to take odd jobs as they start their careers. (17)He continued to write. (18)He sold a few of his short stories to magazines, but he also received numerous rejection letters.

(19)He eventually found a job teaching and continued to write at night and on weekends. (20)Many of those stories were later compiled into a collection called Night Shift.

(21)He became frustrated one night and threw the first few pages of a new novel in the trash. (22)His wife rescued the papers and read them. (23)She urged King to finish the story. (24)He did, and in the end his first novel was accepted for publication. (25)The book was named Carrie. (26)The novel was a success and was later adapted for two movies. (27)Thanks to his wife’s encouragement, King was now a successful writer.
