

GRADE 5

Reading Fiction

Title: "The Mysterious Library"

Once upon a time, in a quiet little town, there stood a library like no other. The Brookside Library was a place of wonder and intrigue, known far and wide for its secrets and mysteries. It wasn't the books themselves that held the mysteries, but the library itself.

The library was a grand old building with towering shelves that reached almost to the ceiling. It was rumored that the library had hidden rooms and passageways that were known only to a few. For generations, the people of Brookside had whispered about the secrets of the library, but no one had ever been able to uncover them.

One sunny afternoon, a curious sixth-grader named Emma decided to explore the library's secrets. She had heard stories from her grandmother about the library's hidden treasures, and she was determined to discover them for herself.

As Emma roamed the library's dusty aisles, she noticed a peculiar book titled "The Key to Secrets." It seemed to call out to her, so she pulled it from the shelf. The book was heavy, its pages filled with intricate drawings and cryptic symbols. Emma realized that this book might hold the key to uncovering the library's mysteries.

Multiple Choice questions

1: What was the title of the book Emma found?

- A) "The Secret Garden"
- B) "The Key to Secrets"
- C) "The Mystery of Brookside"
- D) "The Enchanted Library"

2: Where did Emma find the secret door?

- A) Behind the librarian's desk
- B) In the children's section
- C) In the darkest corner of the library
- D) Near the entrance of the library

3: What did Emma find in the hidden room?

- A) A treasure chest filled with gold coins
- B) A room filled with books
- C) Ancient scrolls, maps, and artifacts
- D) A room filled with toys

4: What did Emma realize about the library's mysteries?

- A) They should remain hidden forever
- B) They were meant to be shared with the world
- C) They were too dangerous to uncover
- D) They were only for the librarian to know

Filled with a sense of wonder, Emma decided to write a book about her adventures in the library, hoping that it would inspire others to explore the world of books and uncover the mysteries that lay within them.

5: What did Emma decide to do after her adventure in the library?

- A) Keep the library's secrets to herself
- B) Write a book about her adventures
- C) Leave the town of Brookside
- D) Forget about the library's mysteries

Answers and Explanations:

1.B "The Key to Secrets"

Emma found a book titled "The Key to Secrets."

Emma opened the book and began to decipher its contents. The more she read, the more she realized that the book was a guide to the hidden passages and secrets of the library. It described how to find a secret door hidden behind a bookshelf in the darkest corner of the library.

2. C In the darkest corner of the library

Emma found the secret door behind a bookshelf in the darkest corner of the library.

With excitement coursing through her veins, Emma followed the book's instructions and found the secret door. She pushed it open, and to her amazement, she entered a hidden room filled with ancient scrolls, maps, and artifacts.

3. C Ancient scrolls, maps, and artifacts

In the hidden room, Emma found ancient scrolls, maps, and artifacts.

Emma spent hours exploring the hidden room and discovered that the library had once been a hub of knowledge and adventure for the people of Brookside. She realized that the library's mysteries were not meant to be kept hidden but to be shared with the world.

4. B They were meant to be shared with the world

Emma realized that the library's mysteries were not meant to be kept hidden but to be shared with the world.

5. B Write a book about her adventures

Emma decided to write a book about her adventures in the library, hoping to inspire others to explore the world of books and uncover their mysteries.