Q3.

Disposable paper kitchen towels are better than reusable cloth towels because they are more convenient and more flexible. ✓

Q4.

Disposable paper kitchen towels are better than reusable cloth towels because they are more convenient and flexible. Overall, disposable paper towels are more convenient and can make your life easier. } x Repetition

Disposable paper towels are more convenient to use than reusable cloth towels. For example, disposable towels can be easily thrown away, while reusable cloth towels need to be washed every time they are used. Additionally, a roll of paper towels can be used by multiple people, whereas a reusable cloth towel can only be used by one person. ✓

Another reason why disposable paper towels are better than reusable cloth towels is because they are more flexible. Paper towels can be used for cleaning practically anything, as well as for eating and cleaning oneself. On the other hand, reusable cloths are only used for kitchen spills. mostly

Some may argue.

One argument in favor of reusable cloth towels is that they are better for the environment. While this is true, paper towels cause relatively little harm to the environment. Furthermore, repeatedly washing reusable cloths with soap and water uses up more resources than using paper towels.

These are the reasons why paper kitchen towels are better than reusable cloth towels. They are more convenient and flexible, making your life easier and avoiding the downsides of reusable cloth towels.
