GRADE 5 READING - POETRY

Artificial Intelligence

Where minds of steel and wires explode,
Artificial intelligence takes its flight,
Spreading swiftly like the speed of light.

Robots march, algorithms race,
Unleashing a technological chase,
From homes to schools, in every nation,
AI reigns with its vast creation.

Data streams flow, knowledge abounds,
Society transformed, new horizons found,
Automation revolutionizing our tasks,
Unlocking potential, that once wore masks.

But amidst progress, questions arise,
Ethical dilemmas, concerns in disguise,
Will AI enhance or replace our role?
A future uncertain, a complex goal.
